A MESSAGE FROM THE BOARD

As I reflect on my first year as Board President of the Arts Council Windsor & Region, I am pleased to share that it has been a resounding success. I have had the privilege of working alongside a dynamic slate of directors—young, diverse, and talented emerging artists who brought tremendous energy and commitment to the board. Month after month, they attended meetings fully prepared, engaged in thoughtful discussion, and fostered a spirit of collaboration and friendship that strengthened our work together. This year, our directors were introduced to community outreach in meaningful ways.

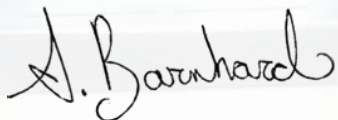

They volunteered at bingo sessions, showcased their artwork in the ACWR's summer exhibition Windsor Heat and will soon be featured in our upcoming winter exhibition Mistletoe & Snow. They proudly represented the ACWR at the information booth inside Willistead Manor during Art in the Park, greeted visitors outside the ArtSpeak Gallery during the Walkerville Art Walk, and contributed to the self-guided art tour during Ontario Culture Days in September. Their enthusiasm and dedication have been a true highlight of the year.

I am incredibly proud of this board and deeply grateful for the dedication and hard work of our Executive Director, Alejandro Tamayo, and our Outreach Coordinator, Phoebe Findlay. I look forward to completing my second and final term in 2026 alongside such an engaged and inspiring group of individuals.

As we continue to support local artists and celebrate creativity in our region, we encourage community members to get involved. If you are interested in joining the board, we welcome you to apply online. We also invite artists and arts enthusiasts to purchase or renew memberships, make a donation, share our posts on social media, and bring friends and family to exhibitions at the ArtSpeak Gallery. Your support ensures that arts and culture continue to thrive in Windsor and Essex County.

Thank you for being part of our vibrant arts community.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Barnhard
Board President

A MESSAGE FROM THE STAFF

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

When I reflect on 2025, I have the feeling that it went by very, very fast. I know I say this every year, but 2025 felt especially quick. We were constantly busy planning and running new programs, preparing grant applications and reports, meeting with artists, and responding to the many day-to-day needs of the organization. All of this activity made the year move quickly, but it also made it a very rewarding one.

This year we also said goodbye to our Outreach Coordinator, Maria Mediratta, who joined ACWR in July 2023. Maria left a meaningful impact on the organization through her dedication and thoughtful approach to community engagement. At the same time, it was exciting to welcome Phoebe Findlay, a recent graduate of the School of Creative Arts at the University of Windsor, who joined us in April. Phoebe has adapted quickly to the role and has been extremely efficient in taking on the many tasks required of the position.

I want to briefly mention some key accomplishments from this year:

Our Senior Arts Program completed its second year and continued to show strong participation. Every workshop and Tea & Chat session was fully attended. A big thank you to Lupita Amaya and Meaghan Sweeney for their work organizing and delivering this program.

Another major highlight was the Creatives at Work residencies and professional development series. This program launched this year with support from an Ontario Trillium Foundation Seed Grant. We partnered six local businesses with six local artists, each undertaking a six-week residency. The impact of this program is still being felt, and we received very positive feedback from both the participating organizations and the artists.

I also want to acknowledge the continuation of the Art & Wellness program for youth offered by the Vanguard Youth Collective, supported this year by artist and art therapist Sarah Shehadeh. We are grateful to the Solcz Family Foundation for supporting this initiative.

Another important moment this year was the final disbursement of the Waddell Trust, whose interests ACWR has distributed since 2002. Six organizations benefited from this final gift: the Windsor Symphony Orchestra, Art Windsor-Essex, the Windsor Historic Sites Association, Common Ground Gallery, Artcite Inc., and ACWR.

I would also like to acknowledge the support of our volunteers and our dedicated Board of Directors, whose commitment and guidance are essential to everything we do.

And finally, a thank you to the Ontario Arts Council and the City of Windsor for their operating support, which allows us to continue developing programs and offering services that benefit the arts community across Windsor-Essex.

Alejandro Tamayo

A MESSAGE FROM THE STAFF ADMIN. & OUTREACH COORDINATOR

Hello Community Members,

As we look back on 2025, I've been reflecting on what a meaningful year it's been and how grateful I am to have joined the Arts Council Windsor & Region. With over 45 years of history, ACWR continues to thrive because of a community that truly values creativity and connection. The generosity I've seen, from our bingo volunteers, members, workshop participants, exhibiting artists, board members, and community collaborators, has been incredibly inspiring. Meeting so many of you has been a highlight of my year, and I look forward to connecting with even more artists and partners in 2026.

Beyond our regular ArtSpeak Gallery programming, this year brought new opportunities to connect through art in meaningful ways. Creatives at Work supported six artist residencies and a professional development series for artists throughout the region. The Senior Community Arts Program returned for its second year, giving adults 50+ space to create, learn, and share stories. And the Vanguard Arts & Wellness Program continued to offer youth a welcoming environment to explore mental wellness through art.

These programs also brought new energy and growth to our team, with seven new roles created across projects. Our Canada Summer Jobs employees, Chidera Ikewibe and Sydney Cremasco, brought wonderful energy and support during the summer months, and I'm grateful for the care they put into their work. I also want to recognize our program coordinators, whose dedication helped bring Creatives at Work, the Senior Community Arts Program, and Vanguard Arts & Wellness to life this year.

And finally, a heartfelt thank-you to Executive Director, Alejandro Tamayo for his steady leadership and encouragement during my onboarding transition, and to Claire Baldwin for her continued work as the Arts Notes newsletter editor, keeping our community connected and informed.

It has been a warm and welcoming beginning, and I'm looking forward to what's ahead; more creativity, more collaboration, and more ways for art to bring us together.

With gratitude,

Phoebe Findlay
Administration & Outreach Coordinator

A LETTER FROM VANGUARD

Vanguard Youth Arts Collective are a group of creatively driven youth who act as a voice for an emerging generation of the arts within the Windsor-Essex region. We nurture creative development by fostering connections within the community. Vanguard spent this past year creating, sharing, and connecting art with the community of Windsor-Essex.

We started out strong with our members' exhibition, Vanguard's Feeling Green, which was shown at the ArtSpeak Gallery from March 23rd to April 5th. With this exhibition, members created work that either incorporated or was surrounded by the colour green. The gallery was filled with wonderful green works, and it created a wonderful atmosphere within the space.

With generous support from the Solcz Family Foundation, we had the opportunity to continue our Arts & Wellness workshop series. Now facilitated by Sarah Shehadeh, an artist trained in art therapy, along with the assistance of our members. From July to December, the community has had an opportunity to enjoy themes such as Sensory Art Meditation, Yoga Flow & Creative Reflection, Feel Good Arts Group, and more to come in 2026!

Throughout the year, we also had the opportunity to host events such as our Poetry Open Mic & Art Supply Swap at ArtSpeak Gallery, creating Zines, Bracelets and Buttons with anyone who chose to drop in during Dropped on Drouillard at Artcite, and collaborated with AWE to host their Weekends in the Studio for the month of April. Members also got to foster connections with community members on both ends of the spectrum of age by leading Zine Workshops with both ACWR's Senior Arts Program and AWE's Teen Art Council. It was wonderful to see that regardless of age, everyone enjoyed the creation equally.

Vanguard was lucky to be able to create a community collaborative artwork through a drop-in activity at the Walkerville Art Walk, where participants decorated mini fabric squares. These completed mini artworks were then sewn together into a community art quilt that was later displayed at our "Second Chances" Exhibit. This exhibit ran from September 1st -7th at the ArtSpeak Gallery, and gave members the opportunity to showcase works that have not had their chance to shine.

This year, we said goodbye to longtime members who are moving on to new projects, but we also welcomed 6 new members as part of our most recent Member Call! Recently, from those new members we voted in our new Secretary and Vice-President, Olivia Patricia and Jasmin Gault! The Collective is already planning new projects and workshops for 2026, and with our fresh set of minds, we are sure to cook up some awesome programming!

We send out a big thank you to the ACWR team, Art Windsor-Essex, Artcite Inc., the Solcz Family Foundation, The May Court Club, and our many family and friends.

We all look forward to a fruitful and creative new year in 2026!

2025 PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

CREATIVES AT WORK

In 2025, the Arts Council Windsor & Region announced the upcoming launch of a new program, Creatives at Work, scheduled to begin on June 2, 2025. The program featured 6 artist residencies, matching local artists with local businesses. As well, a series of professional development workshops for emerging, mid-career, and established artists. Our initiative was to create meaningful opportunities for local artists to connect, grow their practice, and advance their careers.

The Ontario Trillium Foundation (OTF) Seed Grant funded this initiative developed in response to the Arts & Culture survey ACWR collected in 2024 in which local artists and creatives highlighted the lack of spaces and opportunities for creative collaboration. Creatives at Work offered businesses a fresh perspective into their space, and allowed artists to work in new and unexpected ways, presenting the public with unique opportunities for meaning engagement with ideas and materiality.

SENIOR COMMUNITY ARTS PROGRAM

In June 2025, the Arts Council Windsor & Region was proud to announce the return of the Senior Community Arts Program for its second year. Building on the success of 2024, the program continued to empower adults fifty and up through senior-led workshops, activities, and a group exhibition at ArtSpeak Gallery. By involving participants in decision-making and skill-sharing, the program strengthened community connections and encouraged meaningful engagement.

Throughout the year, seniors shared their expertise, learned from one another, and cultivated a supportive, creative environment that enriched both individual experiences and the wider community.
